J. T. WATERHOUSE

A great deal of the cargo of the J. C. Glade was for us and the vessel should have been here before Christmas. We expected the goods for the holidays and they failed to arrive. What's the result? A big lot of goods which should have been sold. We lose the profit rather than carry them over another season.

WHITE SEMI-PORCELAIN WARE, in new shapes. DINNER WARE, in sets or otherwise.

CUPS and SAUCERS, Latest decorations.

Go to you at a third off what you would pay if the sale was regular. The head winds which kept the vessel from reaching Honolulu weeks before she did, were ill winds to us and favorable ones to you.

TOILET SETS, CHEAP JAPAN WARE, TUMBLERS and GLASS-WARE.

Are yours for the asking and a minimum of coin to bind the bargain. This is not a clearance sale but one to enable us to make room for the goods yet to arrive.
